

Reclaim Your Voice

- a course for people who think they can't sing
with Nikki Berry and Gary Easterbrook

This course is for all those people who think they can't sing or have been labelled 'tone deaf', from those who 'mime' in the back row, to those who belt it out while their friends and family cringe.

Nikki has been pioneering this work for many years and seeks to explode the myth of the 'non-singer'. Singing is a skill that develops naturally in children.

Most people who have trouble singing in tune have had this process interrupted in some way. By learning a range of techniques, and through the creation of a supportive, non-threatening environment, we will work to gently reshape the image we have of ourselves as 'non-singers' and claim the right to enjoy using our voices.

Dates

Friday 17 July, 7.30pm - 9.30pm
Saturday 18 July 10.00am - 4.00pm
Sunday 19 July 10.00am - 4.00pm

Venue

Devonport Community House
32 Clarence Street
Devenport, Auckland

Cost

$170.00

Bookings & Information

Book online - www.sing.co.nz or phone Tanya (09) 445 1505 or email Gary - gary@sing.co.nz
Limited numbers - bookings essential
Please bring food to share for lunch

The Tutors

Nikki and Gary are based in Christchurch, where they regularly run their courses through Canterbury University and The Muse Community Music Trust and have helped to create an ever growing vibrant singing community.

www.sing.co.nz